

The Census and COVID-19

The United States Census Bureau is taking extra precaution to keep you safe from COVID-19 during this census year. Because of the COVID-19 outbreak, it is now more important than ever to fill out the census as soon as possible online or over the phone to maintain social distancing.

The Arc Minnesota is committed to ensuring that everyone is safe during this outbreak. This factsheet will help you fill out the census as quickly and safely as possible.

Swift response is encouraged

- Everyone is required to fill out the census by law
- If you do not respond to the census in a timely manner, census workers will visit individual homes closer to the summer time
- Filling out the census right now will keep you safe and take much less time than waiting to complete it
- The Census Bureau has sent you a letter detailing how to respond

You can respond online or over the phone

- The online census option is already live and can be completed by visiting My2020Census.gov
- When prompted, enter you 12 Digit code that you recieved in your letter
